And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” Matthew 28:18-20

"To be a global network of learning, loving and life transforming ministries where hungry worshippers are discovering and walking in their God-given purpose with exceeding great joy."

Do You Need Any Help?

By Pastor David Anthony Clarke, Sr.

“Nothing in all creation can hide from him. Everything is naked and exposed before his eyes. This is the God to whom we must explain all that we have done. That is why we have a great High Priest who has gone to heaven, Jesus the Son of God. Let us cling to him and never stop trusting him. This High Priest of ours understands our weaknesses, for he faced all of the same temptations we do, yet he did not sin. So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it.” Heb. 4:13-16 NLT

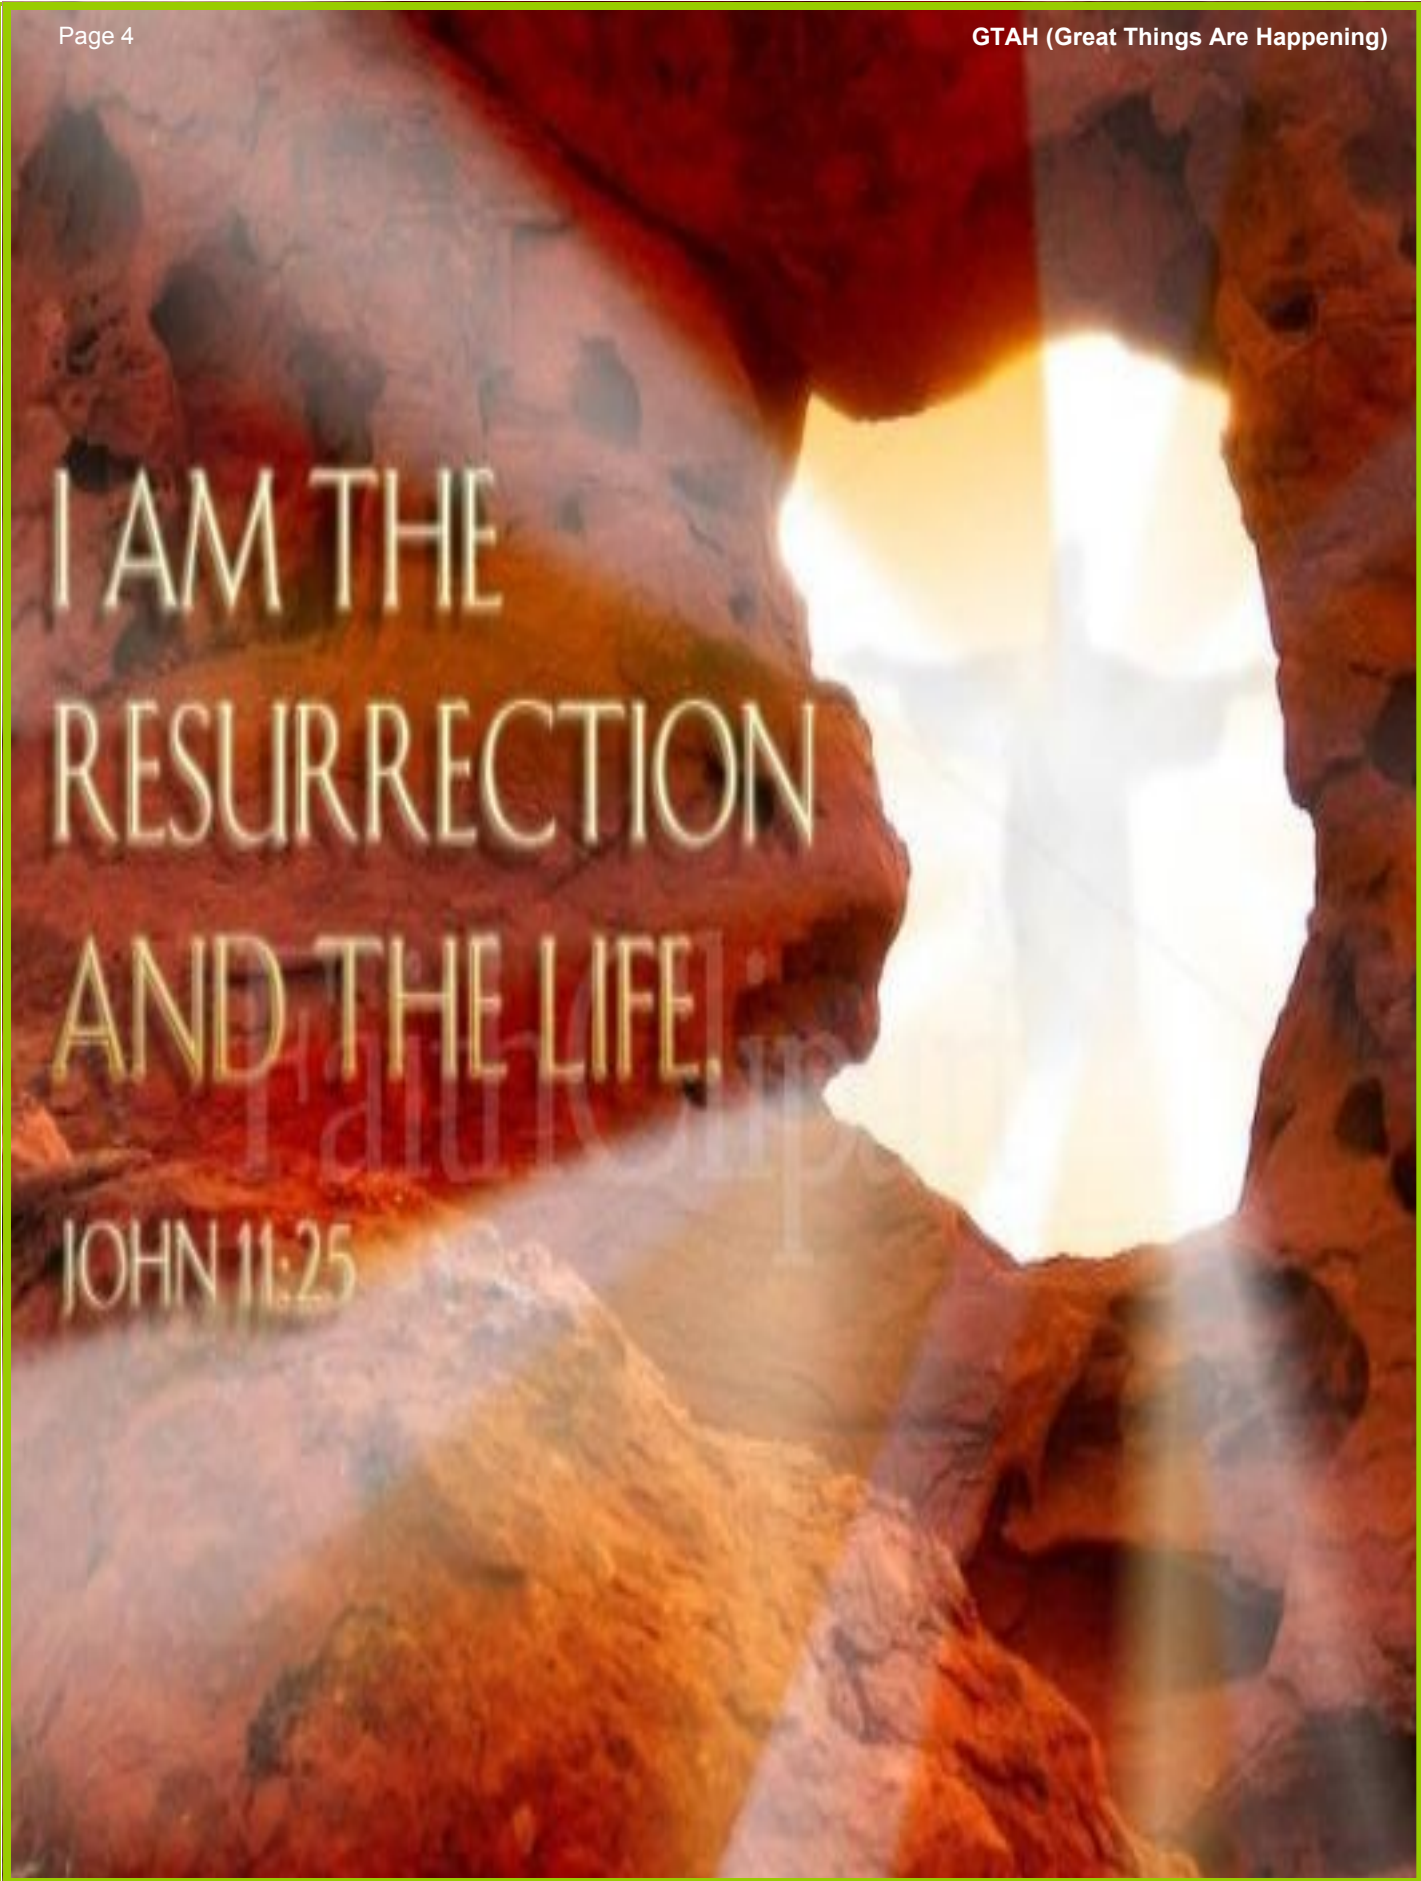

I truly treasure my relationship with Jesus. Not only did He secure my salvation, but I can open up and talk to Him about my temptations as He and I work out my salvation (Phil. 2:12). I need that type of relationship with Him because life can be a trip sometimes. Can I get a witness? I'm grateful that the Lord already set up a way for me to get the help I need when I really need it most.

We all need some help from time to time and we need to know how to get it for the challenges that come our way. Jesus has endured many temptations and trials and now sits on the throne of grace to help us victoriously live in His image. In order to get the help you need, I exhort you to do the following:

1. Admit you need some help. To never admit that you need help with your temptations is to live in pride and disobedience. God resists the proud and gives grace to the humble. Why? Because proud people act like they never need help with anything while the humble admit, “Hey, I’m having a hard time with my situation. Help a brotha/sista out.” You don’t lose any “cool points” by admitting that you’re in the middle of something that’s too much for you to handle alone. You’re no less anointed nor are you less mature by admitting you need help. Mature believers obey the Word of God and ask for help when we need it. Swalloweth thy pride and admitteth thou needest some help. For realeth!

2. Stop making excuses to justify your weaknesses. None of us are perfect and the Lord does not expect us to be. Although the King James translation of the Bible records Jesus telling us to be perfect, the actual translation has Jesus telling us to be holy or mature. In other words, the Lord commands us to grow and become more like Jesus. We cannot do this by constantly making excuses to justify our weaknesses. Excuses such as, “I can’t help it” or “The Lord doesn’t mind if I ___” or “Nobody’s perfect” or I tried to stop, but...” will forever keep you from walking in victory. God understands and He’s merciful, longsuffering, and slow to anger, but don’t play with God by making excuses for indulging in weaknesses that you can overcome.

3. Pray and pray some more. I thank God for the privilege of prayer. Continual prayer keeps me from giving up on the God who wants to help me and it keeps me from giving up on myself. Prayer gives me power to give Him what He wants the way He wants it all the time. Keep praying. As long as you can keep praying, you can find yourself progressing toward walking in more consistent victory. Don’t let shame keep you away from the throne of grace. Come before the risen Savior in confidence and get the help you need when you really need it most. I will admit there are times when I’m praying and telling God, “Lord, I prayed and asked you to help me in that last temptation and I still went on and did the doggone thang anyway, but I repent and ask you to forgive me and help me to walk in victory.” What I’m saying is that I pray and pray some more. In other words, I keep praying no matter what. The hymn writer said, “Just ask the Savior to help you, comfort, strengthen, and keep you. He is willing to aid you; He will carry you through.”

I AM THE RESURRECTION
AND THE LIFE.

Sister Linda Gray
retiring!!!

Linda G. Gray, Supervisor Human Resources Specialist GS-201-13, retires from the Department of Defense at Robins Air Force Base on 31 March 2015 after 32 years of service to the government.

I have had a wonderful career with the government and have met some awesome people! Started in Zweibrucken, Germany in 1983 and from there went to Carswell AFB, Fort Worth, Texas then moved to Beale Air Force Base in California. After several years at Beale, moved to Randolph AFB, San Antonio, Texas where we stayed for 16 years until moving to Robins AFB, GA. I truly enjoyed working in Human Resources which has allowed me to help people with employment. As I move to the next chapter in my life I know that God is there because I truly stand on His word. In Hebrews 13:5-6a which says, Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have; for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper...

~ FINANCIAL CORNER ~

PART II

SPRING IS HERE, FINALLY

Sister Wanda Verrett

If you haven't already done so, get a copy of your credit report and review it carefully. If you have, it's time to get your second credit report for the year. Go to Annualcreditreport.com and request whichever one you didn't get last quarter.

Remember, this year's focus is on wealth building. I gave you a few baby steps last month. Check your progress. If you haven't moved yet, get going. It's already April! Before you know it, it will be Christmas again.

Did you start that investment? Shop around. Banks/credit unions aren't offering much interest these days. Do you have several 401Ks hanging out there from various past employers? These should be rolled together so you can keep track and you pay only one fee. Unless you plan to go back to that employer, it doesn't make sense to leave it there. Remember I said, "rollover", not "cash out". If you take your money out too soon, there will be taxes and penalties to pay.

Did you talk to your family about your financial goals? If you still have children at home, talk to them about the utility bills. See if you can lower your next bill by 10%. If you can, put that money aside each month to be used for family vacation. This way everyone has an incentive to cut those lights out, turn the thermostat up one degree, and unplug unnecessary items.

Start a "change" jar. Everyday each person takes all of the change from his/her pockets/purse and drop into the jar. When the jar is full, make a deposit. You will be surprised how quickly it adds up.

- a. Let's discuss one of the big steps from last month. Agree with your spouse to save all or at least half of one salary for this year. This is a bold step, but with a little belt tightening, you can do it. If this won't work for you, consider a part-time job for a specified period of time. Save all of this income for that new car, vacation, or first home.
- b. We are already committed to living below our means, right!
- c. It's time for that yard sale. Use the money you earn to start your emergency fund. Your emergency fund will keep you from getting into further debt and give you peace of mind.

Congratulations!!!

Ms. Kiara Tuck, a student at Albany State University made the Dean's List 2015, She is the granddaughter of Charlie and Margie Tuck.

Congratulations Kiara!!!
