Happy Mother's Day & Etc.

By David Anthony Clarke, Sr.

Happy Mother's Day

We will celebrate Mother's Day this month. So, allow me to begin with a shout out to all the moms in our GTAH readership and I pray the Lord blesses you with a wonderful, unforgettable Mother's Day 2014!

I also want to share how blessed we are as a church family to have so many transparent moms who share how their faith has moved mountains and their testimonies of the mighty things God has done for them and their child(ren). I encourage UGMBC moms who are "going through" to invest time in listening to the abundant stories of triumph from other UGMBC moms who have been there and done that. May the Lord strengthen all moms to fight the good fight of faith in raising their child(ren) and may He do exceeding abundantly above all you could ever ask or think!

Congrats to the Graduates

Congratulations to all of our graduates from the various levels of academia! If you're walking across the stage in cap and gown this month we praise God with you and your loved ones and I pray the Lord grants you dreams and visions that will change the world for Christ!

David II Turns 17!

My dude, my main man, my namesake turns 17 this month and will wrap up his junior year of high school. Happy Birthday, son! I included this in my article this month to remind some of you that YOU'RE GETTING OLD!!! lol

26th Wedding Anniversary

My beloved bride, Michelle, and I will celebrate 26 years of marital bliss on the 27th of this month. God has surely been good to us. We have had waaaaay more ups than downs; waaaaay more good days than bad; waaaaay more happy times than sad. The Lord has truly been good to us. I love how Michelle has a sense of humor. I think being able to laugh is one of the critical ingredients of a great marriage.

Inquisitive Leadership Webinar

I hosted a live, free webinar on Inquisitive Leadership on Monday, April 26th and many UGMBC members tuned in. I want to thank those of you who participated and I'll host another webinar on Leading in a Lukewarm Church on Monday, June 16th, 2014 at 7:00 p.m. EST! Registration information will be available on www.pastorclarke.com soon.

Ministry Workers' Workshop

UGMBC ministry workers will gather for training on Saturday, May 31st from 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon. I appreciate the servants of UGMBC supporting my efforts to edify the saints for the work of ministry. I trust your schedules will allow your attendance on May 31st as we gather to discuss emotional wellness issues. This workshop will be called Baggage Claim: Emotional Baggage That Make Ministry Difficult. We will have a guest or two with us. We will have a great, fruitful time!

The Shepherd's School

I have been talking about launching an online leadership school for some time and it is finally coming to pass this August! Affordable, Bible-based leadership courses will be offered to leaders of various sectors of society. Our hope is to empower leaders to lead with a tough mind and a tender heart. We'll share more details in the near future. Thank God for progress. I'm moving forward with my dreams. Move forward with yours!

Then

Now

I attended 1231 and Davis, and was blown away by the gifts that our young people possess. That night God gave me the following poem to encourage our young people and also to open the eyes of the older generation to realize that this generation has a lot to offer:

We Hear You You Have a Voice

When you are young, you think old people can't do anything,
Then you get older and think young people can't do anything.
But I'm glad we serve an amazing God who uses whom He pleases.
So, don't let anyone, young or old put limits on you and try to put you in a box.
The sky is the limit when you serve the living God.
I'm blown away by the gifts that I see.
Be proud of what God has given you.
Don't take it lightly, but let your light shine.
It pleases Him, when we walk in His light.,
Even when we are afraid, press through, and grab your light.
With love and admiration, I speak from the heart,
Press on, be strong because you will never walk alone.

~ Fan or Follower ~

I just recently read a book entitled "Not a Fan". When I read the title, I thought; what in the world, you should be a fan of God. Then I read the book and discovered how wrong I was.

In the book, a fan is described as an enthusiastic admirer. Now, at first glance you would think that's a good thing, but look at it when you break that down: enthusiastic---filled with a belief in special revelations of the Holy Spirit; strong excitement of feeling; something inspiring, zeal or fervor; passion. Now we should be enthusiastic concerning all things pertaining to the Kingdom of God. Now lets look at the second part of the definition of fan: admirer: to think highly of, often in a somewhat impersonal manner. That's the word that stopped me--impersonal--is that the type of relationship I want with Jesus? NO!!!!

I want an intimate relationship with Christ. So I had to ask myself, am I a fan or a follower of Christ? A follower is someone in the service of another, one that follows the opinions or teachings of another, one that chases, a disciple. A follower obeys the commands of another. Jesus said, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments". So, the question becomes: How much do I love Him? The answer, Not Enough. My hearts desire is to please Him, but I realize that I fall short a lot of the time. Before you can move forward, you have to determine where you are. I realize my short comings, but you are the only one who can determine your own.

Easter Sunday

Fellowship Bible Baptist Church Youth and College Sunday

DETOUR (high school and college students) of Union Grove: Alexander Pegues, Caleb Doe, Deffrey Collins, Jr., Jason Wheeler, David Clarke, II, Makayla Asim, Nicholas Jones, Hannah Little, Soraya Brown, Jasmine Bynum, Jimya Oglesby, Christopher Johnson, Kiera Salone, Shirlinda Edwards, Aleena Womack, Elder Rashee Ragin and Sis LaShondria Smith visited Fellowship Bible Baptist Church (FBBC) for their Youth and College Sunday held April 13, 2014.

The worship service consisted of a roll call for all of the local middle and high schools along with many colleges and universities allowing students or graduates of each school a chance to shout out and represent. The Mercer's Soulsteppers graced the stage with a full rendition of a church service which included a step will giving and a step as a sermon message. FBBC youth praise team offered several selections leading us into a great praise and worship experience. We had an opportunity to partake in communion with FBBC. Minister Jonathan Lowder shared from Psalm 34: 19 "It tried but it failed" reminding us that as righteous people, chosen of God afflictions will come but He will deliver us out of them. As a righteous people, we meet the criteria for tests, trials, and unpleasant life situations but God will deliver us out of them or from them.

Pastor X. Paul Dunbar reminded us this scripture only applies to the righteous. Following the worship service, high school students entered a drawing for prom giveaways then there was a fellowship with food and drinks provided and a time to bonding with Minister Lowder and FBBC youth.

Sister LaShondria Smith

On March 28th & 29th, the youth leaders went to Berean Christian Church in Stone Mountain, GA for Youth Leadership Training. The theme for the conference was: “Youth Ministry Under Construction”. We were able to bond with one another and gain some very sound scripture-based advice. We were also able to connect with other youth leaders and give them advice as well. Overall, we had an excellent time together. Two members of our SWAT, (Makayla Asim and Alenna Wolmack), team were able to join us and they were very attentive and took excellent notes.

Elder Rashee Ragin

“My experience on the Youth Leadership Conference was fun and informing. The whole conference was led by youth that were members of Berean Christian Church. A lot of the youth that were teaching gave their personal testimony about what God has done for them. We had handouts and filled in the blank questions to keep us engaged. Even though the lessons were structured, we had open discussion and whatever questions we had were answered.”

The conference really made my expectations to rise with the youth at Union Grove Missionary Baptist Church. I took many notes and I believe it’s time for us to step it up.”

-Makayla Asim (SWAT member)

~ Nursery Outing ~

(The Rock Ranch)

The nursery aged children of Union Grove MBC often get left out of events. The ages make it difficult to get away from the church building. With the help of parents, grandparents and some aunties we were able to take the youngest of our church on an outing.

Our day started with a circle of prayer for protection and then we loaded up in the van. The ride was peaceful (we had some good music). When we arrived at The Rock Ranch we decided to start at Tiny Town. This place was great! There was a tiny everything. There was an ice cream shop, a boutique, a fire station, a theatre and even a little church. Some of our youth couldn't pass up the chance to have a brief church service.

Next, we rode the little train around the entire ranch. We got to see just how big this ranch is. We followed the train ride up with peddling little tractor bikes around a track. There was even one bike that the littlest of our crew could just sit back and enjoy the ride with an umbrella over them. Most of the kids wanted to ride ponies. Some were not so sure about this and just watched. It was just about lunch time at this point of the day, but in order to get to the picnic tables we had to pass the giant underground slide. So naturally, we had to go down a few dozen times each.

We enjoyed a lovely picnic lunch at a long table together. There was a massive stage next to the tables so you know our talented little people had to put on an impromptu show for all who were close enough to see or hear. Now, this is the time that average people would allow their food to digest. We chose to go jump on the largest air filled bouncy known to man (as far as I know). We could all fit on this thing. We could have invited the entire children's choir, the deacons, deaconesses and some of the ministers and still had room to bounce. I am not ashamed to say that I was the only adult on there because I had so much fun!

Finally, we made our way to the animals. We saw a few donkeys and ponies first. As we turned the corner we could see an enormous hog. It was sleeping until we all convinced it to get up. This hog was so large it was standing on its own tummy. One child asked if it was a monster. Next on the trail were cute goats and fluffy sheep. The last animals we encountered were the adorable bunnies. This was an excellent teaching moment, God didn't create monsters, but He is very creative with all that He makes. Just like He made the animals all different, He made people with all kinds of differences as well.

We truly had a great time. It was so much fun getting our little church away from the church building for a day. It was an adventure and we hope to do it again. Thank you, Union Grove for making it all possible.

Youth Open Mic Night

“1231 & Davis”

Presents the First Youth Open Mic Night

“1231 & Davis,” just presented its first Youth Open Mic Night for our DETOUR students (HS & College) on April 18th (Good Friday) at the Vision Center. Open Mic Night was a HUGE SUCCESS. Sister Munchie Mack led this event with the assistance of SWAT (UG Student Council) and several Youth Adults. Sister Munchie created a Facebook page for “1231 & Davis” that will list several events that will be produced by “1231 & Davis.” Students were encouraged to sign-up via the Facebook page or in person, in order that their material would and could be screened.

Throughout the night, we were Blessed to see the works of God through many of our young people. Several churches, schools, colleges and youth from outside of Union Grove ministered in some way. We had art, dance, spoken word, scripture reading, instruments and encouragement on display that night. It was an awesome, awesome time.

I honestly have to say that even though I had high expectations for Open Mic Night; God, as always exceeded those. I was and still am so proud of ALL of our students, near and far, who opened up and stepped out for God. They totally embraced the first “1231 & Davis” event and ran with it. Great Things Are Happening and they are happening with our young folks. Just come and see. To God be the Glory.

"Angels of Mercy"

Angels of Mercy Clothing Give Away

Sister Jackie Powell

When Sister Grace Davis asked me to come and write about the clothing giveaway for the GTAH, I suddenly remembered I had pulled out some gently worn skirts, blouses and pants to donate. However, she told me that it was unbelievable the number of items that had been donated. When I entered the Vision Center I was astonished at the generosity of so many people. When I walked in the door, one sister even tried to encourage me to look at the donations to see what I wanted. Oh the temptation, but considering I have enough and that I'm retired I just admired all the donations given by not only Union Grove members but others that saw the signs about the giveaway. Sister Davis told me that one lady was on her way to the Salvation Army saw the sign and stopped and left her donation with them.

Sister Davis stated that after hearing several sermons on giving, helping and sharing with others by Pastor Clarke, the deaconesses were motivated to postpone another event and plan this charitable activity instead. Sister Grace emphasized "God put this on our hearts to do this clothing give away."

With the help of others, in particular Brother Booker, who constructed poles to display the donations, it was easy for all the "shoppers" to find what they wanted. Anyone who stopped by the Vision Center had to feel that the deaconesses had a genuine desire to help them. At the end of the day all left-over clothing, and shoes would be donated to First United Holiness Church in Montezuma under the leadership of Elder Michael Coley .

With help from many donors our wonderful deaconesses will continue to make a difference in OUR community.

Jr SWAT FOOD DRIVE

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT
Union Grove Family & Friends!

Our first Jr SWAT Food Drive was a success! We filled baskets and goodie bags with boxed foods, canned goods, cereals, cake mixes, and even added jelly beans! Some baskets also received $5 and $10 Kroger gift cards to purchase meats or other perishable items.

Elder Ragin and Pastor Clarke have mentioned on separate occasions that we have people "right here" at our church and in our community, Warner Robins and all over Houston County, that could use some assistance. So, as an ongoing effort we will continue the Food Drive all year long!!! Drop off locations will be at UGMBC (rear annex) and The Vision Center!

Heart of Georgia Hospice would like to wish each of our volunteers who have celebrated and will be celebrating birthdays and Anniversaries

Happy Birthday and Happy Anniversary to each of you.

Please email rmorris@heartofgahospice.org if you can answer this question

What year was Heart of Georgia Hospice established in our community?

More Outpouring from our Husband/Wife Volunteer Teams

Mary added, during one of our days volunteering at the Thrift Store, a shopper was blessed by the $1.00 clothing sale. She was able to purchase clothing items for her relatives up North who needed warmer weather clothing. Mary and Ed spend time talking to and encouraging customers, other volunteers, and staff

Richard and Gloria Sans

The Sans shared the most amazing impact of being able to volunteer is being able to live out the gospel to others. Each of them in their special ways, and together are another powerhouse volunteer team as they encourage one another in their roles as volunteers with Heart of Georgia Hospice. Gloria, with such sweet dedication reaches out and encourages as she volunteers at Thrift Store, while Richard spends time calling bereaved families and offering a listening ear, and sharing prayers, scripture, and sometimes silence to the families who are at the other end of the phone. Richard and Gloria also together have wrote and sent sweet cards of encouragement to patients and families members of Heart of Georgia Hospice

Ed and Catherine Jarvis

Several months ago Volunteer Coordinator was inspired by the peaceful presence in which one encounters by being together and in conversation with Ed and Catherine Jarvis. Recently Mrs. Catherine has been able to join her husband in visiting the residential hospice patients with Heart of Georgia Hospice. Mr. Ed many times will break out in a sweet melody of a hymn and Mrs. Catherine will bring a calmness as she is able to connect with encouraging words.

Sandra and Homer Bloodworth

Come together as a team and volunteer as office and community volunteers. Being in the pleasant company of Sandra and Homer Bloodworth will bring a smile to your face. Although they are humble about their roles as volunteers, for many Sandra and Homer Bloodworth have been dedicated behind-the-scenes office volunteers. Sandra and Homer reflect the true meaning of thinking of others before themselves such as each of the volunteers of Heart of Georgia Hospice do day in and out.
